

TLILIC0001 Licence to transport dangerous goods by road

Dangerous Goods Licensing

Who is this course for?

The course in the Transportation of Dangerous Goods by Road leads to the issue of a dangerous goods driver licence which is mandatory for people who operate vehicles that transport dangerous goods in a receptacle with a capacity of more than 500 litres (L) or more than 500 kilograms.

Anyone involved in the transportation, storage and handling of dangerous goods is required, by law, to undergo appropriate training.

Course Location

The Dangerous Goods Licensing Course can be run at your workplace.

For further details, call (02) 8712 4108.

Alternatively, the course is regularly being held at St Marys (Sydney) and MArville (Newcastle).

Licensing, Legislative, Regulatory Considerations

To be eligible to apply for a dangerous goods driver licence you must:

- hold a current driver licence
- have a medical certificate issued not more than six months before the application is made
- have completed an approved dangerous goods driver training course not more than six months before the application is made
- have an acceptable traffic history

About the course

The course provides knowledge of the Australian Code for the Transport of Dangerous Goods and the responsibilities associated with the transport of dangerous goods.

On successful completion participants can receive the required documentation to allow them to apply for a licence to transport dangerous goods.

Our course is approved by the NSW Environmental Protection Authority

- Course Approval Number: NSW TC2/1268.

After completion of a course participants will also receive a Nationally Recognised Statement of Attainment.

Course Duration

This training program is two (2) x eight (8) hour days. Starting at 09:00AM and completing at 05:00PM.

Course Cost

The cost of the course is $395 excluding the Licensing fee.

Applications for Dangerous Goods Licenses are made on behalf of the course participants.

Participants will need to bring the following:

1. A current Commercial Driver or BW Medical Certificate
2. A current RTA Driver History Record
3. Copy of Drivers Licence
4. Two (2) Passport Photographs

Booking and Payment Options

Course costs are to be paid in full prior to the course.

- Send cheque or money order prior to training program/course commencement; or
- Pay by cash, cheque or money order on the day you attend the course (by agreement only)
- Online booking available, <http://www.raisetraing.com.au> (including a $10 surcharge)

Cheques or money orders must be made payable to RAISE Training.

Contact (02) 8712 4108 to arrange purchase order/tax invoice.

Cancellation and Refunds

If a course is cancelled by a client within the last five (5) business days prior to the course start date, a $145 per person cancellation fee is incurred

Any client applying for a refund must do so in writing to the General Manager of RAISE Training stating the reasons for requesting a refund.

Employability Skills

Industry/enterprise requirements for this qualification include:

Communication	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Drivers are required to communicate clearly and directly with internal and external clients and have an understanding of their needs. They must be capable of reading and understanding dangerous goods information and have suitable numeracy skills to undertake calculations relating to loads. This information is required to be shared with authorised personnel in the workplace.
Teamwork	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Work both as an individual and within a team environment to support fellow employees in a coaching or mentoring role.
Problem solving	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Need to analyse and problem solve when dealing with a range of changing conditions and work environments while using mathematical skills to determine load capacities.
Initiative and enterprise	<ul style="list-style-type: none">An ability to adapt to changing situations and workload and develop ideas that will be put into action to benefit work colleagues and the public.
Planning and organising	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Requirement to be autonomous adjust self and workplace environment to fit the need of internal and external clients and to use resources effectively and efficiently whilst analysing and managing risk achieving expected workplace outcomes.
Self management	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Drivers are required to take responsibility for the loading/transfer of loads and their transport on the public roads.
Learning	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Drivers are required to further their learning to contribute to the workplace and their own skills by maintaining currency with legislation, standards and dangerous goods products.
Technology	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Dangerous Goods Drivers are required to have occupational health and safety knowledge that applies to changing technology in transfer and transport of dangerous goods.

This table above is a summary of employability skills that are typical of this accredited course and should not be interpreted as definitive.

Course Accreditation

RAISE Training is a Nationally Recognised Training Provider, accredited by the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA).

Provider Number 91655

The Statements of Attainment issued by RAISE Training are accredited under the AQF (Australian Qualifications Framework) and recognised nationally by industry and other training providers.

Would you like further information?

Course Bookings

Upcoming course information and bookings:

Contact: (02) 8712 4108

Industry Specific Enquiries

No obligation advice and follow up service:

Contact: Graham Jamieson 0410 541 259

Email: info@raisetraining.com.au